

WILSON IN NEW LETTER ON LEAGUE

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—President Wilson today took his first active step in the campaign to aid Gov. Cox by issuing a statement on the League of Nations as affecting the Irish question.

The statement, issued through Secretary Tumulty, at the direction of the president, took the form of an answer to a letter from Edward M. Stevens, a Democrat, who writes asking what could be done about the Irish situation.

"It seems to me," says the statement "necessary for the peace and freedom of the world that a form be created to which all peoples can bring other matters which are likely to affect the peace and freedom of the world." Stevens wrote to President Wilson as follows:

Those supporting the Republican ticket are contending that if we ratify Article 10 of the covenant of the League of Nations we would be bound to support England in holding Ireland under subjection.

"It is not a fact, and so understood, by the high country contracting parties that at the time this covenant was drawn and approved that Article 10 was to prohibit one nation from grabbing any territory of another nation."

"And, also is it not true, that when you said Article 10 was the heart of the covenant that you meant by that the European wars had nearly all been caused by national land grabbers at that this article would cure that off?"

"E. M. SWARTZ."

Secretary Tumulty, by direction of President Wilson, answering the letter, said:

"I beg to say that the identical questions contained in your letter with reference to Article 10 and the right of self-determination found in the covenant of the League of Nations were placed before the president while he was on his western trip last year and fully answered by him. The president asks me to call your attention to the following questions and answers given by him to the press at that time, which I think satisfactorily answers your inquiries. The questions and answers are as follows:

"Q.—Under the covenant does this nation obligate itself to assist any member of the League in putting down a rebellion of its subjects or conquered peoples?"

"A.—No, it does not."

"Q.—Under the covenant does this nation independently recognize a government whose people seek to achieve or have achieved their independence from a member of the League?"

"A.—The independent action of the government of the U. S. in matters of this kind is in no way limited or affected by the covenant or the League of Nations."

"Q.—Under the covenant are those subject nations or peoples only that are mentioned in the peace treaty entitled to the right of self-determination or does the League possess the right to award self-determination to others?"

"A.—It was not possible for the conference to fix with regard to the self-determination of any territories except those which had belonged to the defeated empires, but in the event of the League it has set up in Article 11 a forum to which all claim self-determination, which are likely to disturb the peace of the world or to good understanding between nations upon which the peace of the world depends, can be brought."

FAKE FRUIT BEVERAGES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Warning against "fake" fruit beverages which have flooded the soft drink market since the advent of prohibition was issued yesterday by the public health service. Many of the orange beverages now being sold, it was said, consist only of sweetened carbonated water flavored with a little oil from the peels of oranges and artificially colored.

The department of agriculture noted that provisions of the pure food act are violated when such drinks are sold under trade names which lead the purchaser to believe they contain the edible portion or juice of the fruit named.

FREE COURSES FOR WOMEN VOTERS

By G. W. SWARTZ
Ass't Sup't of Schools

The Gary Public Evening School will offer a course in Citizenship, or more properly speaking, a course in the practical side of voting, to the women of the community. It is to be hoped that a number of men, familiar with the details of voting, will make a point to attend the meeting and to offer suggestions.

The schedule, listed below, provides a total of three evenings in each of the school centers, save in Elkhorn, but this will be corrected in due time. It is important that the dates be kept in mind since it will be impossible to repeat lessons or otherwise increase them number.

The course is free. It is necessarily brief and non-partisan, but it ought to prove helpful to large numbers of first voters of all political parties which no doubt will be represented in the meetings.
